FINE QUALITY CHINESE FOOD

RESTAURANT

HONG KONG

HONG KONG RESTAURANT is a family owned restaurant serving Corona since 1969. We have served traditional, high quality Chinese food for more than 40 years. Our traditional methods are a fast, efficient way of cooking, and have been passed on for many generations. The wok brings out the crispy fresh taste and aroma from the food. Profit is important to any business, but we will never cut back on our quality ingredients. Cooking in big batches saves labor, but the food loose aroma and freshness. It might make good business sense, but it is certainly not the proper way to reflect fresh, healthy Chinese cooking. We use quality meat, costing two to three times what other eateries use, but our prices are always reasonable and very affordable. We believe that good food is like fine wine, to be enjoyed in quality not quantity. Good food, good enough to go into your body, is just what your body needs.

*Let the Woo family
be your source
for quality Chinese meals.*
