HISTORY OF OUR COTTAGE

Check out the rich history of our lovely cottage!!!

- From the earliest records procured from City hall, Cambridge, our cottage was allocated as a property in 1851.
- From 1867 through 1862, Grand Ave S used to be West Main Street South. The owner of our cottage was Andrew Scott, who lived here with the first Lady of our cottage, Shiela and their lovely family.
- From 1912 through 1920, we were 93 West Main South, Eastside and Jos Donaldson resided here with his lovely family.
- From 1920 through 1926, we were given our current street name, 93 Grand Ave S and Jos Donaldson still owned the cottage until 1938.
- From 1938 through 1987, the cottage was owned by different owners F.J Sheppard, V. Cochrane, F. Jarvis, W. Dunn, C. Jarvis, J. Somerville and Vancont.
- From 1991 through 2006, the cottage was owned by Law Photography Studio. From 2008 through 2012, the cottage was owned by O'Keefe Cottage.

And from 2012 to present-day, the cottage has been named as 'The Wired Up Pugs' Cafe-Bistro. Come meet our great team: Vid, Stephen, Beth and Val, and our innovative chef, Amit!

You will have a great experience with us and the food so good it will keep you coming back for more again and again.....Come and relive the cottage and have a relaxing time right at the Grand river.

Cheers!
